The value of the real or personal estate valued or taxed on the same line—two descriptions must be given in one valuation of the same property, from the same list. Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the amount of the tax assessed with it explicit, in the column of taxes to which it is subject. Above the tax list the year for which it is assessed, making a note in the foot of the page stating for what year the re-assessment is made. Two or more City or Village Lots owned and occupied as the parcel may be assessed as one parcel, but the fact must be noted that they are so occupied. Auditor General's Office, 1845.

No more than one tract or parcel must be valued or taxed on the same line—two descriptions must not be joined in one valuation or tax. Personal Estate must be added and taxes entered on a different line, as well as column, from Real Estate. Non-resident lands must be entered in numerical order, beginning with section one. Enter the amount of any re-assessment, with Real Estate, in the column of taxes to which it belongs, above the tax for the year for which the Roll is used, making a note at the foot of the page stating for what year the re-assessment is made. Two or more City or Village Lots owned and occupied as one parcel, may be assessed as one parcel, but the fact must be noted, that they are so occupied.—Auditor General's Office, 1845.

I do hereby certify that I have set down in the above Assessment Roll all the Real Estate in the Township of Bloomfield liable to be taxed according to my best information and that with the exception of those cases in which the value of Real Estate has been sworn to by the owner or possessor thereof I have Estimated it at a sum which I believe to be the full value thereof - and also that the said Assessment Roll contains a true statement of the aggregate amount of taxable personal Estate of each and every person named in said Roll and that except those cases where the value of such personal Estate has been sworn to by the owner or possessor I have Estimated the same at its full value according to my best information and belief.
